

Greene Co.

Miss Rain Day plans service project

Monday, July 8, 2013

Kendall Lewis, Miss Rain Day 2012, is required to do a service project as part of her duties. Saturday, she will host a walk along the Greene River Trail to raise money for Alzheimer's research. From left, Mark Lewis, Kendall's father; Kendall; her grandmother Pat, who suffers from Alzheimer's; and Kendall's late grandfather, Ike Lewis.

WAYNESBURG – Kendall Lewis, Miss Rain Day 2012, is required to do a service project and she wanted to do something with meaning.

Kendall's grandmother is currently suffering from Alzheimer's so she decided to host a walk on the Greene River Trail to raise money for Alzheimer's research Saturday.

The walk is three miles, starting and ending at the Greene Cove Yacht Club trailhead entrance to the Greene River Trail. Registration begins at 8 a.m. and the walk begins at 9 a.m.

Individuals interested in walking or unable to attend but would like to make a donation to help fight this disease can download the registration and donation forms at www.missraindaypageant.org or contact Lewis at 724-880-6981.

Forms and donations can be returned to Kendall Lewis or Rain Day Scholarship Inc. Please make checks payable to Alzheimer's Association.

For more information, call Lewis at 724-880-6981 or Rain Day Scholarship Inc. at 724-747-4506.

Copyright 2012 Observer Publishing Company. All rights reserved.

This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.